

The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Radiologists®

Join us in Melbourne from 23 – 25 October to Celebrate 90 Years of RANZCR

On behalf of The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Radiologists (RANZCR), we are pleased to invite you to our 75th Annual Scientific Meeting (ASM), taking place from 23 – 25 October 2025 at the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre in Melbourne, Australia.

This year's ASM is particularly special as we celebrate 90 years of the rapid rise of the role of clinical radiology within the medicine. Over the past nine decades, our College has been at the forefront of advancement, contributing to the future of radiology and radiation oncology through excellence in education, research, and clinical practice.

Our ASM Promises to Deliver

- An informative and engaging scientific program with the latest advancements and research in radiology.
- Insights from leading experts who will challenge conventional thinking and inspire new ideas.
- Interactive discussions and participation in sessions designed to encourage collaboration and knowledge exchange.
- Networking Opportunities to connect with colleagues, industry partners, and thought leaders from across Australia, New Zealand, and beyond.
